WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO ATTEND VISION 2030 SUMMIT?

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Vision 2030 Summit and Awards aims to:

- Reinforce private and public sector support for and commitment to the National Development Plan (NDP)
- Take stock of where we are, where we should be, and the way forward for the nation to achieve its NDP objectives
- Raise awareness and position the NDP as a South African plan and not merely a government plan
- Unpack the National Development Plan into an easy-to-understand, practical document; outlining how government departments, provinces, municipalities, state-owned enterprises and agencies are aligning themselves to it
- Position South Africa as an investor-friendly country
- Discover innovations, solutions, plans and initiatives that can help fast track the realisation of goals set by the business and investor communities
- Promote and encourage public-private partnership investment opportunities in provincial and local government

WHAT SOME LEADERS ARE SAYING ABOUT THE NDP

"Guided by the National Development Plan, we aim to restore our focus on building an economy in which all South Africans can flourish, an economy which benefits the people as a whole, rather than a privileged few."

- President Cyril Ramaphosa

"The DPME plays a critical role in ensuring that the National Development Plan (NDP) vision which seeks to create a better and more prosperous South Africa priorities is put into practice through coordinated and focused Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation."

- Minister in the Presidency for the National Planning Commission for Policy and Evaluation, Nkosazana Dlamini-Zuma

"It provides a blueprint for the country to commit to as a collaboration effort between government and all its social partners, with a specific focus on economic matters."

- Minister of Energy, Hon. Jeff Radebe

"It's about talking and demonstrating to people that the NDP is the way to go. The NDP ticks the boxes for everybody. It's not a static plan - you need to fill it with life and make it tangible for people."

- CEO, Siemens, Sabine Dall'Omo

"An event like Vision 2030 promotes and engages discussions around the NDP. It's an incredible plan. It's a vision that everyone in South Africa is striving towards, but we can only achieve it when we as a society work together."

- Dr. Jackie Thompson, SANBS

"With the focus of this Summit the National Development Plan must be strongly advanced as the inclusive recovery plan to change South Africa for the better."

- South African Attorney and Politician, Dr Mathews Phosa

SUMMIT HIGHLIGHTS

SECTOR BASED BREAKAWAY SESSIONS

Delegates have an opportunity to attend industry specific breakaway sessions, which are relevant to their line of interest. Some of them include Education, Skills Development, etc.

FAST-TRACK NETWORKING SESSION

A fast-track networking session where delegates will be presented the opportunity to network and engage with peers, private and public sector leaders, policymakers, and high-profile business leaders. Attendees will be able to make more contacts in 60 minutes than they would year round.

"MEETINGS MADE EASY"

Delegates will be able to set up appointments prior to the event with delegates that can possibly do business. This is a great lead generation tool.

SHOWCASE COUNTERS

Delegates will get an opportunity to explore solution-based products and services that companies showcase, which are in line with the NDP.

VISION 2030 PUBLICATION LAUNCH

For the first time ever, the 3rd annual Vision 2030 Publication will be launched at the event.

COCKTAIL NETWORKING FUNCTION

This is an additional opportunity for delegates to network after sessions over a cocktail.

AWARDS

The annual Vision 2030 Awards honour the achievements and share the success stories of organisations, enterprises and individuals that are actively demonstrating alignment to the government's Nine-Point Plan to boost economic growth and achieve the milestones set by the National Development Plan (NDP).

15h45 – 16h00	Closing remarks

THIS IS WHAT SOME OF THE DELEGATES HAD TO SAY

"The Vision 2030 Summit (2017) was insightful. On day one Mr Chupu Stanley Mathabatha, Premier of Limpopo, was one of the speakers I enjoyed, as his speech centred around good governance. He spoke about the problem of the unaccountability of government officials and how that impedes governing at the local and national level. For me this speech was at the epicentre of the problem, as it illustrated the divide between the people and the government officials designated to govern."

– Zasembo Mkhize, CEO, Themba Njilo Foundation

"The most important thing with a summit like this is that everyone gets the opportunity to share experiences, and we get to learn from each other. As we do that, we will grow. People often forget that the more we talk and have these positive conversations – the lessons, the experiences, the failures, the wins – the more we grow as a team and we become better."

– Simpiwe Somdyala, Corporate Affairs, Old Mutual

"The feedback you're able to generate from an event like Vision 2030 is that it needs to continue. I think it's an event that needs more networking. I think another benefit of an event like this is its ability to bring business and government together to talk about their issues. So, an event like Vision 2030 has a very important role to play."

– Nkosana Mbokane, CEO, Technochange

public enterprises

Department:
Public Enterprises
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

"An event like Vision 2030 allows us the opportunity to implement and 'do' while we are talking. While the year 2030 is a long-term vision, there are many things we can do now that act as building blocks for the future. An event like this is great because we can talk, but also take stock of where we are and what needs to be done."

– Matsietsi Mokholo, Deputy DG, Department of Public Enterprises
